Pet Oxygen Masks Donated To Fire Department

Walpole Fire Department Deputy Chief Michael Laracy is presented with pet oxygen masks by Dr. Tris Carpenter on behalf of the Massachusetts Veterinary Medical Association's Emergency and Disaster Program.

Pet oxygen masks were recently presented to Deputy Chief Michael Laracy of the Walpole Fire Department by Dr. Tris Carpenter of the Norwood Animal Hospital.

Dr. Carpenter, on behalf of the Massachusetts Veterinary Medical Association's (MVMA) Emergency and Disaster Program, delivered kits of animal life saving equipment to Walpole Fire Departments and the fire departments of four surrounding towns.

Deputy Chief Laracy indicated that this equipment was much needed and that it would be available and in service immediately.

For more information on the Massachusetts Veterinary Medical Association's Charities Programs, International Programs, Emergency and Disaster Programs and Stray Animal Program, contact MVMA Charities, inc., 163 Lakeside Ave., Marlboro, MA 01752 or call 508-460-9333.
